Auction Sale

— of —
Cows and Young Stock

As I have sold all of my pasture to the Morrison farm, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on Wednesday, October 18, 1911

at 1 o'clock sharp in the afternoon, on the premises where I now live, on the west hill in Barre, Vt., situated one and one-half miles from Barre City and next to the Morrison farm, the following described live stock

13 High Grade Holstein Cows
all young and good size, and will freshen in the early winter and spring; and are as nice a lot as you can find. Four grade Holstein heifers, coming two years old, that will freshen in March and are dandies. Six nice calves, four of them heifers and a matched pair of bulls. Also one pair of fancy matched two-year-old bulls. This is all high grade, nice clean stock and will be sold to the highest bidder without limit or reserve for the reason above given.

Terms at time of sale.

Horses and Cattle

As I have a large stock of cattle and horses that I wish to turn into cash or bankable paper, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on Thursday, October 19, 1911,

at 12:30 o'clock sharp in the afternoon on the premises where I now live in Vershire, Vt., known as the Alfred Norris or Charles Davis farm, situated three miles from Vershire village and five miles from Chelsea village, right near height of land between Chelsea and Vershire, the following:

12 Extra Nice Cows
mostly high grade Holstein and Durham. This is a fine lot of cows as you can find in Orange county, young and good size, part of them just freshened and balance will be before Dec. 15. Four fancy full blood Jersey heifers, coming two years old, two two-year-old Durham heifers, eight nice calves that will be one year old late this fall—mostly high-grade Holstein, very large and fancy. Eight other calves, all sired by a registered Holstein bull and from extra high grade Holstein cows.

One pair large work horses, weight 2,700 pounds, as good a work team as you could wish for. One black three-year-old stallion, sired by Black Eagle—a splendid colt. One yearling colt, sired by Black Eagle—a good one. Also one sucking colt. This is as fine a lot of cows and young stock as anyone owns. I have raised all the young stock and paid fancy prices for the cows; but do not think any of this stock will be bid in as I need the money and mean business, so all will be sold to the highest bidder without limit or reserve. Lunch will be furnished for those coming from a distance.

Terms at time of sale.

Acme Granite Company's Real Estate and Personal Property will be held on Friday, October 20, 1911, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon on the premises belonging to said company, situated in Barre Town, Vt., near Webster's. This property consists of nearly 10 acres of quarry land with necessary buildings thereon; also one 45-horsepower Rawson and Morrison steam hoist, two derricks and some small tools. This property is now leased on a long term lease, paying a good royalty, and is being sold to settle up the company's business.

Two Farms

of about 90 acres of land adjoining each other, situated on the west hill of Williamstown, near Clogston brothers' farm. Each farm has separate sets of buildings, which are in fair condition. The land lays nicely and consists of about 15 acres woodland, the remainder main fields and pastures. Apple orchard and sugar orchard. Have just purchased a never-failing water supply, amply sufficient for both farms, which together with present supply and the brook running through the east and south sides of farms furnishes plenty of water for both sets of farm buildings and pastures, summer and winter. These farms are about three miles from East Roxbury, three miles from Brookfield pond village, four miles from Williamstown and seven miles from Northfield. Rural free delivery mail service. Come to this auction prepared to purchase for yourself a home. House, barn and as much or little land as you wish. These farms will undoubtedly sell cheap and be purchased on very reasonable terms. Will sell all the property entire or subdivide to suit purchaser. At same time and place will sell one eight-year-old brown mare, handsome, kind, excellent roader and worker; one three-year-old Jersey cow, fresh in September; several tons of hay, 15 hens, one driving harness, one pneumatic tire road wagon, one mud wagon.

Any Person Wishing to Dispose of property, horses, cattle or other personal property can list the same in this sale by conferring with me any time up to date of sale. Auction sale will take place on the farm Saturday afternoon, October 21, 1911.

Celebrated Hemmings Herd of Pedigreed Jersey Cattle

twenty in number, cows and young stock, at the Hemmings farm in Chelsea, Vt., three miles from the village, on

at 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon. This lot of fine bred and high-class stock will be sold on account of advancing age and poor health of owner. All lovers of thoroughbred Jersey cattle will do well to attend this sale, as nothing better can be found in Vermont. I will also at the same time sell a very valuable high-bred colt. List and pedigree of this stock will be furnished by applying to the owner or auctioneer. Terms at time of sale. Lunch will be furnished for those coming from a distance.

EASY TO GET RID OF DANDRUFF

Dandruff means that down near the roots of your hair there is a vast army of little invisible germs or microbes. And this army never sleeps! It wages a war of destruction night and day. It destroys the nourishment that the hair must have in order to grow vigorously and abundantly.

PARISIAN SAGE now sold all over America will destroy these germs and at the same time furnish the hair roots with just the proper nourishment to make hair grow lustrous and luxuriant.

PARISIAN SAGE is guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp or more back. It is a delightful hair dressing that wins instant favor with refined women. Sold for only 50 cents a large bottle by the Red Cross Pharmacy and druggists everywhere. Girl with Auburn hair on every carton and bottle.

HUGE BLACK BEAR
Bennington, Oct. 17.—The biggest black bear killed in southern Vermont in many years, was on exhibition yesterday at the home of John Smith, a machinist who is regularly employed at the Sibley novelty works, on Jefferson avenue. On his way to this village Smith put his prize on the scales, and it tipped the beam at 292 pounds. Bears are killed regularly in the spring and fall in the mountains of Bennington county but they are comparatively small animals, weighing from 100 to 175 pounds.

Smith was grouse hunting Sunday in the vicinity of Coleville at the foot of Harmon mountain when he ran across the bear. He always carries in his cartridge belt a couple of shells loaded with ounce balls but during the 15 years that he has tramped the mountains, never until Sunday has had occasion to use them. He quickly made a change of loads in his shotgun and fired at the bear at a distance of about 15 rods. One shot was sufficient, the heavy bullet shattering the animal's spinal column.

QUEER TANGLE DEVELOPED.
People Said to Have Built Houses on Land They Didn't Own.

Rutland, Oct. 17.—If the allegations set up in a chancery case filed in Rutland county court yesterday are true, a number of people who have homes in that portion of the city just south of the fair ground and west of Main street, known as Marble City park, have built houses, unwittingly, on land which they do not own. The case filed is a foreclosure proceeding brought by S. P. Curtis of this city against Herbert N. Vandewerker of Glen Falls, N. Y., and about 20 other people living in various parts of the country. George W. Platt is counsel for the Messrs. Curtis.

On July 27, 1907, Mr. Vandewerker bought of S. P. Curtis and H. E. Curtis a large plot of land south of the fair grounds, giving them a mortgage on it for $4,000. The claim is made that this mortgage has never been paid and therefore Vandewerker had no right to give a clear deed of the property.

Soon after the alleged purchase of the property, Mr. Vandewerker cut it up into building lots and named it Marble City park. On the day that the first lots were sold the Rutland City land was out and a good many customers seeking building lots were on the ground.

The allegation is now made that as Mr. Vandewerker had never actually paid for the Curtis property, he did not own the many lots which he sold. As the men and women who bought the lots built homes upon them in many cases, there is a great deal of law in the matter and the matter will be threshing the matter out because the

About the State

Robert Morrill shot a bald eagle in Taftville recently, which measured five and one-half feet across the wings.

Probably the youngest licensed hunter in the state is Philip George, aged ten years, of Stowe. He is four feet and one inch tall and weighs 50 pounds.

Charles Town, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Town of Fair Haven, while playing in a cherry tree, fell, cutting a large gash in his head and fracturing his skull.

Jesse Latterell, the young son of John Latterell of New Haven, had a bad fall recently and landed with his throat cut by a nail from a fence. Since then he has been unable to speak aloud.

James Stratton, an aged Clarendon farmer, was thrown from a buggy and injured by being run into by an automobile owned and driven by Peter Smith of Bellows Falls. The motorist tried to avoid running over a bicyclist and in doing so ran into Mr. Stratton.

J. A. Remington's laundry in Richmond was badly gutted by fire Thursday evening. The origin is not known, but it may have been a defective stove pipe. The loss is estimated at $1,000, fully covered by insurance. The household goods are practically a total loss.

Mrs. D. C. Scribner, recently of Stowe, met with severe injuries last week at an opera house in Bideford, Me., where she now resides. An alarm of fire caused a panic among the audience and in the struggle to get out Mrs. Scribner was trampled upon and sustained a double sprain of the left ankle. The ligaments were torn from the leg and internal injuries were feared.

Irene, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Winn of Winoski, was badly scalded Friday from the hips down by an overturned pan of boiling water at the home of a neighbor, Mrs. Edward Hall. Mrs. Hall was boiling some old pieces of candle and had just removed the boiling wax from the stove. In going through a bedroom she tripped and dropped the contents of the pan on the child, who was sitting on the bed. The little girl suffers considerable pain.
